

GROUP VISITS

at WWT Slimbridge

WWT Slimbridge Wetland Centre is a multi-award winning day out and wetland conservation charity. Founded in 1946 by Sir Peter Scott, Slimbridge welcomes 250,000 visitors each year and is home to a collection of birds, mammals and amphibians as well as 800 acres of wetland reserve. A £6 million project has seen eight new exhibits open in recent years including Scott House Museum.
