

fungi guide

Look out for these mushrooms and fungi, tick them off as you spot them.

Bloody brittlegill

Fairy inkcap

Candlesnuff

ALSO KNOWN AS STAG'S HORN FUNGUS

False saffron milk cap

Dead man's fingers

King Alfred's cakes

NAMED AFTER KING ALFRED WHO COULDN'T BAKE!

Lichen

LONG-TAILED TITS CAMOUFLAGE THEIR NESTS WITH LICHEN.

Stump puffball

Red edge brittlestem

Turkey tail

Shaggy inkcap

ALSO CALLED THE 'LAWYER'S WIG'

Velvet shank

Please remember – never forage wild fungus

Their ID can often be mistaken and many are toxic to humans. They are best left alone and in nature.

Follow us @WWTWashington

Find out more at wwt.org.uk/washington